the case, both defendants require additional time to review discovery and prepare their respective defenses; (3) the parties are preparing to engage in preliminary discussions concerning entering into plea agreements, the defendants desire additional time to review discovery, and both the United States and the defendants seek additional time to pursue such discussions, which may render trial of this matter unnecessary; (4) the defendants consented to the continuance; (5) the grant of a continuance will likely conserve judicial resources; and (6) pursuant to Title 18 of the United States Code, Section 3161(h)(7)(A), the ends of justice served by granting the continuance outweigh the best interests of the public and the defendants in a speedy trial.
